PRESIDENT'S PLANS

Hopes of Settling the Strike Are Not Abandoned. Washington, Oct. 7 .- There was only one development of importance in the coal strike situation yesterday. Frank P. Sargent, commissioner of immigration, had a long interview with President Roosevelt yesterday and left Washington very soon afterward. Mr. Sargent indicated that the interview concerned the coal strike, but he would not discuss the matter. From the fact that he always has been influential with labor organizations, it is generally believed that he is entrusted with a message to President Mitchell of the miners' union. It is also said that Mr. Sargent is to meet Mr. Mitchell in Philadelphia and deliver the message of the president urging that the miners end the strike in the interests of the public.

While many propositions have been Phone at oain 226; at residence 229, under discussion, it is almost certain that the administration is taking up only one plan at a time. The present plan contemplates an end of the strike years actual by the action of President Mitchell and anthracite coal was imported into the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901. Since the Dingley act-levying a duty of 67 cents a ton on coal-passed, there has only been a total of 6,609 tons imported. Under the Wilson bill there was a total of 149,748 tons imported in the year 1896 alone. The Wilson tariff on coal was 40 cents, which was increased 27 cents by the Republican congress. It, therefore, seems that the coal trust has received considerable protection from the Dingley tariff bill."

Persons informed as to the schedules of the Dingley tariff law know that there is not a cent of tariff on anthracite coal, a statement of fact easily corroborated by any one who will read the law, yet an effort is here made to show that protection caused the coal strike great convenience. DANGER DROVE HER

How a Timid Woman Found Courage.

She was by nature a timid woman. Nothing had been able to induce her to Far up in northern Holland among cross the narrow, swaying plank which bridged the creek. Sooner than take this short cut she would go a mile above where there was a substantial wagon bridge. But now when the fire was sweeping across the prairie, consuming houses and crops, she was driven to the plank over the creek as the only hope of escape. Danger drove her. Fear flogged her. And tottering and trembling she made the passage in safety.

There are a great many sick women who have heard for years of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the medicine made famous by its cures of womanly ills. But they have no faith in it. They go the long way round to seek health, tioner. Perhaps when he fails they try not permitted by law to practice medicine, and cannot therefore give genuine medical advice. Of course anyone competent or incompetent can give advice on any subject, but the advice of un-skilled persons in medical matters is not merely valueless, but dangerous. Dr. R. V. Pierce, as chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Iustitute, Buffalo, N. V. assisted physicians, has in a little more than thirty years treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women.

"I received your letter some time ago, with advice about your wonderful medicine," writes Miss Stella Johnson, of 28 Brady St., Dayton, Ohio. "I was troubled with severe pains every month when I wrote to you for advice. After receiving your letter and following its directions, I am now happy to say that after five years of untold suffering I have not had any pains since first using your 'Favorite Prescription.' I was induced through a friend to write to you and follow your kind advice. I thank God and Dr. R. V. Pierce for the health I now enjoy."

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It cures backache, headache and the other ills that result from womanly disease.

Favorite Prescription are not temporary, but permanent. They are perfect cures. It is not uncommon for women to say that they never knew the meaning of perfect health, even in their best days, until they had used "Favorite Prescription." And this is because the medicine is more than a mere cure for female troubles. It not only puts out the fire of disease, but it rebuilds what the fire has destroyed, and often on a finer scale, as in Mrs. Rollin's case, who, after her cure, weighed twenty-five pounds more
